RULES FOR PARTICIPATION IN ANNUAL RICK'S PLACE GOLF CART/SIDE BY SIDE POKER RUN

1. This is not a race or a timed event. It is strictly for fun. All traffic laws must be obeyed, especially the  Posted speed limit in Perry is 20 mile an hour. Orange Safety Flags Are Required. Good sportsmanship is to be observed at all times.
2. Each participant must be 16 to participate in the contests. You must have a seat in a cart or side by side. No stand up riders.
3. Each participant will be given route directions at registration upon their signing of the participation waiver.
4. You will receive your scoresheet for the poker hand prior to take off. You will have the opportunity to enhance your poker hand along the way. Your poker card must be marked by the attendant at each stop. If you draw a duplicate card at any stop, you must redraw. Your best five cards will determine the hand.
5. Your final card must be picked up at Rick's Place by 5 p.m. and turned in at the scoring table.
6. You will also be given a Perry Trivia Quest at registration. All Perry trivia questions will be found by following the route given in the directions. Bring a pencil and show us how much you know about Perry! Answer as many as you know or can find. Some questions are quite challenging.
7. There will be games for your enjoyment along the way. You do not have to play but we think everyone will have a good time.
8. Committee members may participate in the poker run, and games but not the Perry Trivia Quest as long as they pay the registration fee.
9. Prizes have been donated for the poker run, Perry Trivia Quest, and other games. All monies collected from entry fee, poker play and games will go to the recipient(s) listed on the front of this flyer.
